After successfully conducting the 1st Moot Court Competition in the month of February, 2020, 2nd Moot Court Competition in the month of February, 2023 and 3rd Moot Court Competition in the month of February, 2024 the Management this year is very happy to add up one more to the list – The 4th Moot Court Competition on 1st and 2nd of February, 2025.

Moot Court is going to be developed into a key extracurricular activity in Jagarlamudi Chandramouli College of Law, as the College feels that mooting helps the law students the best. The College deems it as a right path to reach out to the future needs of legal aspirants and to recognize their talent and help them improve their skills of drafting and mooting. Therefore, here stands the J.C. College of Law conducting, its Fourth Moot Court Competition.

Moot Case

Aadhvitha D/o Rama Rao, aged about 23 years and Aayan S/o Khan, aged about 23 years are classmates studying final year of LL.B. in J C College of Law, Guntur and friends and want to marry. They are the residents of Guntur City, Andhra Pradesh. The two have decided about their future life. According to the consensus between the two – Aadhvitha shall continue to follow her Hindu religion and Aayan shall continue to follow his Islam religion. Further, they have agreed that nobody would interfere with religious feelings of the other. Aadhvitha has asserted that she had no intention to convert to Islam. Aadhvitha and Aayan gave Notice to the Marriage Officer, Guntur under Section 5 of Special Marriage Act, 1954 for registration of their marriage. Aadhvitha's father raised the following objections to the marriage that – Aadhvitha has left the house by taking away jewellery of all the family members, that she has taken away cash and that if she goes for an inter-religion marriage his family would be boycotted by the society. As a result, the Marriage Officer has not given date for registration of marriage. Aadhvitha fears that her father would file criminal case for abduction against Aayan. Out of fear of physical attacks Aadhvitha and Aayan could not meet the Marriage Officer in his office.

Aadhvitha and Aayan filed a Writ Petition under Article 226 of Constitution of India before the Hon'ble High Court of Andhra Pradesh seeking a) a direction to the Marriage Officer to give a date for registration of marriage of the Petitioners b) a direction to the State Government to provide security to the Petitioners from the family members of Petitioner No.1 Aadhvitha c) to provide the follow-up guard to the Petitioners for appearing before the Marriage Registration Officer and d) for a direction to the State Government not to register any criminal case against Petitioner No.2 for abduction or any other offence filed by the father of Petitioner No.1.

The High Court directed the Counsel for the Petitioners to address the Court as to whether marriage of Petitioner No.1 with Petitioner No.2 will be a valid marriage.

The Court heard both the Counsels and held that “as per Mahomedan Law, the marriage of a Muslim boy with a girl who is an idolater or a fire -worshipper is not a valid marriage. Even if the marriage is registered under the Special Marriage Act, 1954 the marriage would no more be a valid marriage and it would be an irregular (fasid) marriage, as the parties are within the prohibited relationship”. The Court was of considered opinion that “no case is made out warranting interference”.

Aggrieved by the decision of the High Court the Petitioners preferred Appeal by Special Leave to the Supreme Court of India. The Appellant No.1, Aadhvitha filed an Application stating that “assured of the Right to Freedom from Religion inherent under Article 25 of the Constitution of India Appellant No.1 wants to live non-Religious”. The Respondents contested the Application and Appeal. The matter is posted for final hearing.
