ABOUT GUJARAT NATIONAL LAW UNIVERSITY (GNLU)

Gujarat National Law University is a statutory University established by the Government of Gujarat under the Gujarat National Law University Act, 2003. The University is recognised by the Bar Council of India and the University Grants Commission. The University functions as a nodal agency to uplift legal education in the State of Gujarat. The University offers teaching, research and training programmes in law and inter-disciplinary fields such as Arts, Commerce, Science and Technology, Business Administration and Social Work at both undergraduate and postgraduate levels. It is the only National Law University offering integrated undergraduate law degrees in five areas- B.A. LL.B., B.S.W. LL.B., B.Com. LL.B, B.B.A. LL.B, and B.Sc. LL.B.; full-time LL.M., MBA in Financial Management and Business Laws and PhD in law and other disciplines as recommended by the UGC as well as diploma/certificate courses in various areas.

ABOUT GNLU CENTRE FOR RESEARCH IN CRIMINAL JUSTICE SCIENCES (GCRCJS)

The GNLU Centre for Research in Criminal Justice Sciences (GCRCJS) is a specialised Research Centre focused on advancing the study of criminal law through comprehensive research and academic discussions. Since its inception, GCRCJS has organised numerous significant events, including the 13th Asian Criminology Conference, GCRCJS International Conference on Crime & Technology, multiple editions of our flagship Legislative Drafting Competition. GCRCJS actively facilitates the exchange of ideas through initiatives like the 'Crime and Justice: A Discourse Series,' the newsletter: 'The Crime and Justice Gazette,' and the blog: 'Crime & Justice Blog.' The Centre has hosted several prominent figures for webinars and guest lectures, including Shri Shekhar Naphade, Senior Advocate at the Supreme Court of India, Hon'ble Ms. Justice Gita Gopi, Judge at the Gujarat High Court, Hon'ble Ms. Justice Sangeeta Vishen, Judge at the Gujarat High Court, Ms. Rebecca John, Senior Advocate at the Supreme Court of India and Ms. Aishwarya Bhati, Senior Advocate, Additional Solicitor General at the Supreme Court.

ABOUT GNLU CENTRE FOR LAW AND TECHNOLOGY (GCLT)

The GNLU Centre for Law and Technology (GCLT) is dedicated to keeping its stakeholders updated on developments in both fields. It provides a platform for merging science and law through various means, such as awareness-raising, capacity-building programs, conferences, quizzes, and talks at the university. These efforts aim to enhance research quality at regional, national, and international levels, fostering the growth of responsible legal professionals who understand the nexus of science and law. This knowledge equips them to contribute not only to India's legal systems but also to the global legal landscape and society as a whole. As part of its endeavours, the Centre has launched the GNLU Journal of Law and Technology (GJLT).

VISION OF THE CONFERENCE

The Conference aims to provide a dynamic platform for legal scholars, students, practitioners, researchers, technologists, and policymakers to explore and address the evolving interface between crime and technology in diverse fields. It seeks to foster insightful discussions, share pioneering research, and propose innovative solutions to tackle the sophisticated challenges that arise in today's digital landscape. By examining intersections like white-collar crimes, AI-driven offenses, and economic transgressions, participants will collaboratively work to develop forward-thinking approaches to address the complex and multifaceted nature of crime in the digital era.
