ABOUT VIDHI MANTHAN 1.0

Vidhi-Manthan is an invigorating legal fest that brings together the sharpest minds in law for a dynamic display of skill and strategy. Featuring three main competitions—Client Counselling, Mediation, and Moot Court—this event challenges participants to showcase their expertise in legal consultation, dispute resolution, and courtroom advocacy. Through rigorous rounds of competition, Vidhi-Manthan aims to foster critical thinking, enhance practical legal skills, and celebrate the spirit of legal excellence among aspiring lawyers. It's more than just a competition; it's a crucible for future legal luminaries.

CLIENT COUNSELLING COMPETITION

The Client Counselling Competition aims to enhance the practical skills of law students by simulating real-life client interviews. This competition will provide students with an opportunity to develop their interviewing, counselling, and analytical skills, which are essential for effective legal practice.

MEDIATION COMPETITION

Mediation serves as one of the prominent form of alternative dispute resolution (ADR), offering a constructive and voluntary method for parties to resolve conflicts outside traditional court processes. The competition aims to foster mediation skills among law students, promote alternative dispute resolution, and provide a platform for them to showcase their abilities.

19TH SHANKARRAO KANITKAR MOOT COURT COMPETITION

The Shankarrao Kanitkar Moot Court Competition is a prestigious event that provides students with a platform to develop their advocacy skills. Held since 2006, this competition involves drafting briefs and participating in oral arguments, simulating real courtroom experiences. It tests student's legal reasoning, research and presentation skills offering them valuable practical experience.
